Penn Highlands Healthcare Welcomes Brockway Drug

August 9, 2022, DuBois, PA – Penn Highlands Healthcare continues to grow its pharmacy footprint by welcoming Brockway Drug as its newest pharmacy partner.

“We are pleased to offer residents of Brockway and surrounding areas with an expanded continuum of care by integrating Brockway Drug into our health system,” said Penn Highlands Healthcare CEO Steven M. Fontaine. “For 60 years, they have been providing expert pharmaceutical care and related services to the community and we look forward to helping to enrich that relationship.”

Brockway Drug, located on Main Street in Brockway, is a full-service pharmacy that is staffed by pharmacists with more than a half century of combined experience who are assisted by a team of pharmacy technicians. In addition to providing medications that meet the community’s health and wellness needs, the pharmacy provides many services ranging from durable medical equipment to administering immunizations. They also offer a complete line of gifts and home goods.

Ron Matson, RPh, former owner of Brockway Drug who will remain as a pharmacist, shares Mr. Fontaine’s enthusiasm. “Our goal moving forward is to offer the same hometown service and unique merchandise that our patients have come to expect from us.”

Brockway Drug joins Penn Highlands Healthcare retail pharmacies in Brookville, Clarion, DuBois, Kane, Punxsutawney, Reynoldsville, St. Marys and Bennetts Valley.
